Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Applicant's arguments are not persuasive. Notably Examiner maintains that the tracking of web pages requests in Nations system in order to determine the most requested web pages is analogous to Applicant's claimed hit rate. Clearly the tracking of web page requests occurs over some period of time in Nation's system. It is noted that Applicant does not claim a "recent hit rate" as argued and defined by Applicant's specification pg 9, lines 24-27 rather, Applicant merely claims a hit rate without further defining a period of time for tracking hits.

Additionally with regard to regard to the outstanding 101 rejection, Examiner maintains that a "transmission medium" as defined by Applicant is non-statutory. Applicant's attention is drawn to the recently published "Interim Guidelines for Examination of Patent Applications for Patent Subject Matter Eligibility (signed 206Oct2005)," pages 50-57.
